A letter from our judge,
Jeff Chandler

Dear Apache Staff,

Many thanks for the privilege of being selected as the judge of your beauty contest. Although it was, in many ways, a very pleasant task, please be assured that I found it most difficult.

There are many standards of feminine beauty and what one person may see as beauty another may not. I can only assure you that my selection was arrived at only after some very careful consideration and is based wholly upon what I was able to discern from the photographs.

My very best to you all.

Sincerely,

Movie-goers will be viewing scenes of TJC's own colorful dance team, the Apache Belles. Here the director is shown instructing the girls on the next shot.

A group of smiling Belles are shown performing: Shirley Brule, Nancy Miller, Barbara Stanfield, Pat McBride, and Patricia Kidd.

Band and Belles perform at the Cotton Bowl during the State Fair.

Larry Alexander, editor of the Pow Wow the first semester, shows Carmen Evans that folding papers isn't as bad as some might think!

Below: Newt Presswood and Pat Matthews look through an old scrapbook while Carmen busily types. Roland Head and Wallace Barbee are seriously engaged in making layouts.

Pow-Wow

Ray Lewis, James Salmon, Don Turman, H. L. Honzell, and Gwen Dancells are performing another task that comes with journalism: typing their stories.

Mary Emma Ray, editor, last semester, supervises copy layout. Frank Dykes and Charles Moore carry her "orders" out to a 'T'. Rodney Kamel seems to have found something interesting in the files.

Staff

Above: Emmitt Williams, and Doreva Bradly type some more of those layout sheets that disappear all too fast!! Jack Barron and Johanna Johnson are putting the final touch to their stories as Wallace Barbee looks on.

Lloyd James, Frances Hart, and Toby Pledger prepare the Pow Wow for mailing. Talmadge Dodd, staff photographer, checks his camera while the others work.

Big Six Champs

The 1953 Apache football machine rolled across the line for another Big Six Conference title this year. The team won ten games and lost one. The T. J. C. football record is one that would be regarded with great enthusiasm anywhere. Since the first Apache team in 1947, "Wag's" boys have not lost a conference championship. The Apache spirit has been and will be victorious time and time again through the boys who work so hard as a team to make football a success at Tyler Junior College.

Charles Thomas clears a path for Wayne Ray to roll up another six points.

Jimmy Dickey picks up yardage for the APACHES.

Campbell and Herchman were not quite fast enough to clear an opening for Mack Pogue.

Bub Harris has a clear field in front of him to gain more points for the APACHES.
